

E Granthalaya Software

The stock and services of the library are automated powered by e-granthalaya software version 3.0 provided by the National Informatics Centre Department of Information Technology, Ministry of Communications and Information Technology, Government of India. The software has been designed by a team of experts for the housekeeping library activities as well as the Library and Information Science discipline.

Total no. of Books Accessioned in e granthalaya software is (9032) and it has all the record of students as well as teachers and other staff of this vidyalaya.

The Above image showing the cover page of e granthalaya software